Power of Attorney from yourself and your partner

- To be used in instances when you need permission to transact on each other's behalf.
- Grantor must be alive and not in a coma for it to be valid.
- Get one drawn up by a lawyer.
- The original must be signed and witnessed but not stamped by a Commissioner of Oaths.
- Copies of the original POA must be certified.
- You will need to do a separate POA for your bank using the bank's forms. Both of you will need to be present so do not wait until someone is too frail or weak to do this.

☐

Proof of Income tax registration - yourself and all entities you are involved in
